

CityPaper

Crafty Bastards!SM

ARTS & CRAFTS FAIR

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 18, 2007

CONTACT: Kimberly Dorn
202-332-2100 x282
kdorn@washingtontcitypaper.com

CRAFTY BASTARDS IS BACK! DC's Indie Craft Fair

(Washington, DC) DC's DIY fair is back and it's better than ever! Crafty Bastards Arts & Crafts Fair combines alternative artistic vision with quality handmade goods, the likes of which you've never seen before! This year's crop of jury-selected vendors represents the best and the craftiest from all over the country. Shop through 100 booths for one-of-a-kind items all handmade by the best DIYers around. You'll find cigar box guitars, vegetarian werewolf plush dolls, decapitated Barbie jewelry, hand-screened clothing and accessories, unique artwork and items for the home, toys for the kiddies and much much more!

Visit the City Paper booth and meet the artists behind Savage Love and Dirt Farm and be sure to grab a Crafty Bastards souvenir. You can also snack on delicious treats from Cake Love, Sticky Fingers and Carmen's Italian Ice while you're checking out the workshops by Etsy and enjoying all-day entertainment including the annual B-boy battle, Rock-n-Romp, and the Weirdo Show.

Don't miss this one-day event! Join Washington City Paper for the 4th annual Crafty Bastards Arts & Crafts Fair for indie crafts and loads of fun!

EVENT: Crafty Bastards Arts & Crafts Fair
WHEN: Sunday, September 30th, 10am-5pm
WHERE: Marie Reed Learning Center, 18th Street and Wyoming Avenue, Adams Morgan, Washington, DC
WHAT: 100 vendors, free admission, outdoors, rain or shine

###

For more information and to preview this year's crafty vendors, go to www.washingtontcitypaper.com/craftybastards